JUNE GUEST SPEAKER—
PAULA SPAULDING
BIRD PHOTOGRAPHY

For 40 years, Pam Spaulding was a photojournalist for the Louisville, KY, Courier-Journal, beginning in 1971. Her photographs have also been published in many books, calendars and magazines, including five books of her own work.

Her primary work was photographing the everyday lives of people in Kentucky but she took every opportunity to produce stories about Kentucky’s flora and fauna. Since her retirement in 2012, she has pursued the subject that she loves most: Birds.

Her presentation will be about birding adventures including where to find birds, how to photograph them and fascinating details about their lives.
